COLLECTED CONTENT: Poles Saving Jews

A website dedicated to the Ulma family from Markowa

No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. (John 15: 13)

The premiere of the first episode of the IPN film series "Not Only the Ulmas" about Poles saving Jews, 26 January 2024

The IPN remembers about the oldest holder of the Righteous Among the Nations title

Anna Koźmińska, the oldest living holder of the Righteous Among the Nations medal (granted individually), is celebrating her 101st birthday on 22 May 2020. Her story had remained unknown for decades. Risking their own lives, Anna Koźmińska and her foster mother Maria, hid four Jews, including providing long-term shelter for a boy - Abraham Jabłoński - during German occupation.

Repressions for helping Jews

No less than 467 people were killed for aiding Jews – point out Aleksandra Namysło and Martyna Grądzka-Rejak, the author of the book “Repressions for helping Jews in the occupied Polish lands during the Second World War”.

It was our national duty to establish this day, Dr. Mateusz Szpytma on the Remembrance Day of Poles Rescuing Jews under German Occupation

Poles are the nation which has the biggest number of trees in YadVashem site. And yet not only in the world, but even in Poland, it was difficult for this fact to enter the collective consciousness. Perhaps people lacked individual human stories, which would show the heroism of individuals and even entire families, who risked the lives of their loved ones, including young children.

Distinctions for Humanity
