

The administrator of personal data processed in connection with the organization of the event International Conference Need to Know XIII and the 2024 IIHA Annual Conference: Intelligence in Central and Eastern Europe (Intermarium) and the Soviet (Russian) Factor, Warsaw, October 14-16, 2024 is the Institute of National Remembrance Commission for the Prosecution of Crimes against the Polish Nation, 1 Janusza Kurtyki St. 02-676 Warsaw, NIP: 525-21-80-487.

Contact details of the Data Protection Inspector at IPN-KŚZpNP: inspektorochronydanych@ipn.gov.pl, mailing address: 1 Janusza Kurtyki St., 02-676 Warsaw, with a note: Data Protection Inspector.

The purpose of the processing is:

- (a) registration and enabling participation in the conference,
- b) placing and processing personal data in the IPN address database, with the possibility of correcting and supplementing them, in connection with all activities related to the organized conference,
- c) use film and photos to document the conference.

The legal basis for data processing is Article 6(1)(a) (your consent to the processing of your personal data) and Article 6(1)(e) (processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or the exercise of public authority - Art. 53 pt. 4 and 5 of the Act on the Institute of National Remembrance - Commission for the Prosecution of Crimes against the Polish Nation) of the Regulation of the European Parliament and the Council (EU) 2016/679 of April 27, 2016 on the protection of individuals about the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (RODO).

Personal data will be processed for the time necessary to conduct the competition, until the end of publication on the organizer's website, media, and official social media profiles, and until the withdrawal of consent. The data will then be stored by the deadlines specified in the Institute's Tangible File Inventory, issued under Article 6(2) of the Act on National Archival Resources and Archives of July 14, 1983. The data may be processed for the time necessary to establish, assert, or defend claims.

You have the right to withdraw your consent to process this personal data at any time. Withdrawal of consent will not affect the lawfulness of processing that was carried out based on your consent before its withdrawal.

Entities assisting the administrator in organizing the event, including through the IPN Conferences platform, can access your personal data.

You have the right to:

1. access to your personal data (i.e. check what data the administrator processes, obtain a copy of the data, as well as obtain information for what purpose and on what legal basis the administrator processes the data, to whom it is disclosed, and when it will be deleted),
2. request for rectification and completion of personal data (in case they turn out to be incorrect or incomplete),
3. request to limit the processing of personal data;
4. request for deletion of personal data.

You have the right to complain to the supervisory authority about the processing of your personal data, which is the President of the Office for Personal Data Protection, with its seat in Warsaw (00-193), 2 Stawki Street.
