Table of Contents

Introduction 7

The situation of the Church in countries behind the Iron Curtain 11

RAFAŁ ŁATKA
The Church and Communists in Poland in 1944–1956: An Attempt at a Synthetic Overview 13

MIROSLAV AKMADŽA, JOSIP MIHALJEVIĆ
Faith under fire: The Catholic Church's position in communist Croatia (1945–1952) 39

MARIO JAREB
Church–State Relations in Croatia/Yugoslavia including the Persecution and Staged Trial of Zagreb Archbishop Alojzije Stepinac in the Reports of US diplomats in Zagreb and Belgrade, 1945–1946 67

MĀRA KIOPE
The Decade of Vatican Silence: the historical experience of the Catholic Church in Latvia (1946–1952) in relation to the impact of forced migration 93

Selected issues concerning the history of churches and religious associations 131

KRISTINA BURINSKAITĖ
KGB agents' activity against Lithuanian Catholic Church. The "students" case 133

MARKÉTA DOLEŽALOVÁ
Propaganda against Pope Pius XII as a part of anti-church politics in Communist Czechoslovakia in the fifties 151

BOGUSŁAW WÓJCIK
Youth underground organizations as an antidote to anti-religious propaganda in the Rzeszów Province in the first decade after World War II 169

PRZEMYSŁAW PAZIK
Breaking the spirit. The oath of loyalty of the Polish Episcopate on 17 December 1953 and the Completion of the Stalinist framework for Church–State relations 193

Activities of key clergy members 219

DENISA FLORENTINA BUDEANCĂ
Bishop Márton Áron against the Romanian Communist State. The Worst Years (1948–1956) 221

COSMIN BUDEANCĂ, CSONGOR JÁNOSI
Imre Sándor (1893–1956) – a Roman Catholic Priest in Romanian Communist Jails 251

DRAGOȘ URSU
Biographies of Christian Resistance in Communist Romania. Priest Ioan Iovan and the Context for the Recalibration of Relations between the Romanian Communist Regime and the Romanian Orthodox Church 277

SOLVEIGA KRUMINA–KONKOVA
Martyr for Faith – Bishop Kazimirs Dulbinskis 303

Index of Persons 317