

CONTENTS

Disintegration of the Russian Empire and the forms of transition towards Nation-Satets by Wojciech Materski	9
Establishment of the Transcaucasian Democratic Federative Republic and its international situation by Paweł Olszewski	23
Transcaucasian Sejm and Georgian Political Spectrum by Otar Janelidze	43
Polish – Bolshevik War and Georgian Society (According to the materials of the Georgian Press) by Mikheil Bakhtadze	63
The Story of the Conflict Between the Senior Georgian Officers in the Polish Army in 1929 by Dimitri Silakadze	87
Georgian political emigration to Poland and the issue of de-occupation of Georgia (20s – 30s of the XX century) by Shorena Murusidze	101
Wacław Ostrowski’s mission to the Caucasus 1918–1921 by Paweł Libera	115
Kpt. Viktor Vakhtang Lomidze (1900–1956). An archival report Polish Institute and Sikorski Museum, London by David Kolbaia	131

DOCUMENTS

Great Britain’s attitude towards the future of Georgia and the South Caucasus in late 1918 and 1919 by Paweł Olszewski	175
---	-----

Sergo Kuruliszwili's letters from Warsaw (1920 – 1922). Materials for studying the history of Georgian emigration to Poland by Shorena Murusudze and by David Kolbaia	225
Documents of the archive 'Archiwum Akt Nowych' about the possible supply of weapons from Poland to Georgia (1922) by Mikheil Bakhtadze and by Otar Janelidze	279
Joseph Salakaia (1881-1940) – Representative of the Georgian Emigrant Government in Poland (Letters, 1925-1931) by David Kolbaia and by Shorena Murusudze	293
The story of preparations for the canonisation of Father Grigol Peradze by Rev. Henryk Paprocki	322
Report from the Seminar of the Polish-Georgian Historians' Commission Tbilisi, 22–26 November 2019 by David Kolbaia	335
Bibliography	339
Index	345