The National Education Office

The National Education Office disseminates knowledge about the most significant events in the modern history of Poland. The Institute organizes classes at schools, workshops for teachers, lectures, seminars, competitions and educational trips. It prepares exhibitions, concerts, films and film screenings, websites and educational materials for teachers and their students. Moreover, the National Education Office conducts interviews with witnesses of key historical events and makes such materials available to the general public. It also organizes campaigns and media events to promote knowledge of modern Polish history
