Access to documents for the purpose of performing statutory responsibilities

Application for access to documents for the purpose of performing statutory responsibilities pursuant to Article 36 (1)(1) of the Act on the Institute of National Remembrance of 18 December 1998 (consolidated text as of 28 January 2021, Journal of Laws of 2021, item 177)

State administration entities, law enforcement agencies or other bodies, institutions or associations which specify their legal interest are entitled to apply, as well as any person demanded by administration or judicial authority to submit the documents required for the purpose of proceedings before that authority. Private citizens must attach a document confirming that such proceedings are conducted.

Applications for the discovery of evidence for requirements listed in Articles 2 and 3 of the 20 March 2015 Act on members of anti-communist opposition and people persecuted for political reasons are also processed under the procedure under Article 36 (1)(1) of the Act on the Institute of National Remembrance.
