The Polish Underground State exhibition

The exhibition was prepared by the IPN's National Education Office in Białystok on the 80th anniversary of the establishment of the Service for Poland's Victory.

Author: Paweł Murawski

Graphic design: Linepag Graphic Studio Paulina Gajda-Deszczka

Review: Dr hab. Filip Musiał, Magdalena Śladecka

The photographs used in the exhibition come from the Archive of the Institute of National Remembrance, the National Digital Archives, Studium Polski Podziemnej in London, the collections of the National Library and the collections of the KARTA Center.

The aim of the project is to prepare exhibitions focusing on key issues for Polish society. The exhibitions are ready, downloadable and printable versions for institutions, schools and private persons.

We kindly ask for your feedback and photographic documentation of events and places during which these materials were used (to the address sergiusz.kazimierczuk@ipn.gov.pl). This information will be collected on the IPN's website.
