A statement of the Council of the Institute of National Remembrance

On 29 January 2019, the members of the Council of the Institute of National Remembrance acquainted themselves with the activities of the IPN Office of Search and Identification planned for 2019, with the principles of cooperation with the Holocaust Museum in Washington and held a discussion on the materials of the Polish People's Republic security services which were exported out of the country. With regard to the latter, information was requested from prosecutor Andrzej Pozorski, Director of the Chief Commission for the Prosecution of Crimes against the Polish Nation.

Please find attached the resolution of the IPN Council.
