Statement by the Council of the Institute of National Remembrance – Commission for the Prosecution of Crimes against the Polish Nation of 23 February 2021

It is with approval that the Council of the Institute of National Remembrance has received the decision by the IPN's President Jarosław Szarek, Ph.D. on his accepting the resignation of Tomasz Greniuch, Ph.D., acting Director of the IPN's Wrocław Branch. Furthermore, the Council wishes to express its regret that this issue had not been resolved earlier, and that the Council had not been asked to issue its opinion during the process of nominating Tomasz Greniuch, Ph.D. to this post.

In view of the above, the Council demands that future nominations, including the posts of acting heads at the IPN, be consulted with the Council.
