Meeting with the Latvian Ambassador at the Mausoleum of the Presidents of Poland in Exile

On 21 December 2022, the IPN Deputy President Prof. Karol Polejowski

met with Latvian Ambassador Juris Poikāns in the Temple of Divine Providence in Warsaw, where they visited the Mausoleum of the Presidents of the Republic of Poland in Exile and the Memorial Chamber. Przemysław Gasztold, Ph.D., from the IPN Historical Research Office, presented the project related to the culmination of the 100th anniversary of Poland's regaining independence.

The main purpose of the initiative to create the Mausoleum at the Temple of Divine Providence in Warsaw was to pay tribute to the Presidents of Poland in Exile. The ceremonial burial of the Presidents in their homeland took place on 12 November 2022 constituting a symbolic culmination of the history of their lives and work for a free and democratic Poland.

The Memorial Chamber, an integral part of the Mausoleum of the Presidents of the Republic of Poland in Exile, is aimed at recalling the figures of the Presidents of the Republic of Poland in Exile through important documents, personal items and memorabilia. The permanent exhibition, prepared by the IPN National Education Office in cooperation with the "Aid to Poles in the East" Foundation, features the figures of successive Polish Presidents in Exile and the role they played in Polish history.
