The Congress of National Remembrance — DAY 3

The Congress venue was visited by 13,000 people, including 7,000 children and young people. During this time, the Institute of National Remembrance presented the 20th-century history of Poland and Poles in an accessible, interesting and modern way. History Speaks Across Generations was the motto of the Congress of National Remembrance. This was the first event of its kind, offering historical debates, games, exhibitions, workshops, film screenings and much more to enthusiasts of our history.
