The ceremony of unveiling the Marshal Piłsudski bust in Brussels - Brussels, 6 November 2018

On Tuesday, 6 November 2018, the unveiling of Marshal Józef Piłsudski bust took place in Brussels. The event featured a performance of the Royal Brass Band of Hussignies and a light projection on the facade of the Embassy of the Republic of Poland, presenting the history of Poland. During the celebrations the Institute of National Remembrance was represented by Dr Mateusz Szpytma, Deputy President of the IPN, and Adam Siwek, Director of the IPN's Office for Commemorating the Struggle and Martyrdom.

The celebration was organized by the Institute of National Remembrance and the Embassy of the Republic of Poland in Brussels. Marshal Józef Piłsudski bust has been fully funded by the Institute.
