Study visit of UK teachers at the Institute of National Remembrance - Warsaw, 28 August 2019

On 28 August 2019, at the IPN headquarters, a study meeting was held with teachers from the United Kingdom, organized in cooperation with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Polish Embassy in London and the Polish Press Agency.

The delegation included teachers of history, literature and politics in British secondary schools. The guests familiarized themselves with the history, mission and activities of the Institute, with particular emphasis on international cooperation. In addition, the representatives of IPN's National Education Office told teachers about leading projects and ongoing educational campaigns. The main focus of interest of the guests were issues related to World War II and the Polish People's Republic.
