International scientific conference “The Poles and the British faced with the outbreak of the Second World War” - London, 27-28 September 2019

On the 80th anniversary of the formation of the Polish Underground State the IPN would like to send out its invitation to an international scientific conference: “The Poles and the British faced with the outbreak of the Second World War”.

The international scientific conference "The Poles and British faced with the outbreak of World War II" began in London. The symposium on the 80th anniversary of the creation of the Polish Underground State was organized by the Institute of National Remembrance, the Embassy of the Republic of Poland in London, the POSK Polish Library in London and the Polish Underground Movement Study Trust. The meeting was opened by the Deputy President of the Institute of National Remembrance Jan Baster and the Polish Ambassador in London Arkady Rzegocki.

- "Polish-British relations were of great importance, especially to the Polish side, both in 1939 and later on during the war. It was here, in London, that from June 1940 till the end of the war our highest authorities were based.” – Deputy President of the Institute of National Remembrance during the opening of the conference.

The organizers of the event are:

- The Institute of National Remembrance – Commission for the Prosecution of Crimes against the Polish Nation
- The Embassy of the Republic of Poland in London
- The POSK Polish Library in London
- The Polish Underground Movement Study Trust in London
