"The Fighting Republic of Poland 1939-1945" - a popular publication for young people available in numerous languages

The publication, addressed to young people and foreigners, provides the reader with the most important information on the fate of the Polish state during World War II in an accessible and concise manner. The presentation of the Polish language version took place on 28 August 2019. English, French, German, Russian, Ukrainian and Italian versions of the book have also been published.

In connection with the 80th anniversary of the outbreak of World War II, the Institute of National Remembrance has published a popular science publication authored by Dr Maciej Korcuć, entitled "The Fighting Republic of Poland 1939-1945".

Please feel free to download the book in the language version of your choice.
