The IPN's "Custodian of National Memory" prize. The deadline for submitting applications has been moved to 10 April 2020

In connection with the applicable provisions on the state of the epidemic, the President of the Institute of National Remembrance decided to extend the deadline for submitting applications for the award to 10 April 2020.

The Institute of National Remembrance would like to encourage private persons, institutions and organizations to submit their nominations for the IPN's Custodian of National Memory Prize.

The "Custodian of National Memory" prize is granted to individuals, as well as to institutions and social organizations for their particularly active participation in the commemoration of the history of the Polish Nation in the years 1939-1989, and for public activity coinciding with the statutory objectives of the Institute of National Remembrance. The laureates are selected by a panel headed by the President of the Institute of National Remembrance.

The prize is awarded to private persons, institutions or organizations. As of 2012, one of the five distinctions can be awarded posthumously, which allows the Institute to express its gratitude and recognition to those who are no longer with us. The prize is honorary and its laureates receive the title of Custodian of National Memory.

In 2020, the prize will be awarded for the nineteenth time.

If you would like to nominate a candidate for the prize, please fill in the online form below:

Application form

Nominations may be submitted until 22 March 2020. When nominating a candidate please be sure to also send their consent to data processing (also available online) to the following address:
