A photo competition addressed to Polish school students living outside Poland

IPN's History Point in Chicago

under the patronage of the Polish Teachers Association in America and the oldest Polish-language newspaper which has been published continuously outside of Poland since 1908

"Dziennik Związkowy"

would like to invite you to take part in a photo competition

addressed to Polish community students and their families

Polskość białą i czerwienią się mieni

{GALERIA:21474}

The condition of participation in the competition is the child's attendance at a Polish community school.

The competition consists of two main categories: individual student photos and family photos. One high-quality recent photo from a selected category should be sent to the following address:

przystanekhistoriachicago@gmail.com by 5 May 2020.

The photo should show how we manifest our Polish heritage and culture in connection with the May holidays:

- 3 May Constitution Day,
- Polish National Flag Day,
- the Polish Diaspora and Poles Abroad Day

Please send a scan of the filled out application form along with your photo.

More information on the prizes and detailed conditions of participation are available below.
