"A Republic Lost" Exhibition in Letychiv (Ukraine)

On 2 July at the Shrine of Our Lady Queen of Podole and Volhynia in Letychiv (Ukraine) an opening of the exhibition "A Republic lost" was held. The exhibition was prepared by the Branch Office of the Public Education Office in Warsaw in connection with the 65th anniversary of the end of World War II.

The exhibition was opened by Jacek Pawlowicz, Head of Department of History Education of the IPN's Public Education Office in Warsaw and Fr. Bishop Leon Dubrawski, Bishop of the Diocese of Kamyanets-Podilsky and Fr. Pastor Adam Przywuski, curator of the Shrine.

Owing to the kindness and support of Fr. Pastor Adam Przywuski the exhibition will be open until September, and later, at the special invitation of Fr. Bishop it will be transported to Kamyanets-Podilsky.
