We're going back to our roots, returning to the idea: the IPN's spot presents the community, the Poles who said "NO" to communism in the 1980s, ordinary people who opposed the communist system. We did it because we were together. It was born in Poland in 1980. The spot is also available in French and Russian language versions (settings).

The www.encyklopedia-solidarnosci.pl website is part of the IPN's "Encyclopedia of Solidarity" documentary project. Its purpose is to present the history of the opposition in the Polish People's Republic in the years 1976-1990. The portal constitutes an important supplement to the "Encyclopedia of Solidarity", four volumes of which have been published so far. Work on the fifth volume has just begun.

Previously unknown Soviet documents and a new portal about "Solidarity" on the 40th anniversary of its establishment

On the occasion of the 40th anniversary of the foundation of "Solidarity", the IPN's Branch in Katowice and "Gość Niedzielny", have prepared a press supplement "The August Breakthrough. The 40th anniversary of the foundation of Solidarity". The project is complemented by the "Faces of Solidarity" website. The "Faces of Solidarity" portal presents, among others the biographies of selected strike leaders from August '80, a map of strikes and agreements, unknown photos and documents, the role of John Paul II in the events of 40 years ago and an analysis of the Soviet reaction to the "Polish August".

The 40th anniversary of signing the August Accords in Szczecin - Szczecin, 30 August 2020

In the summer of 1980, Szczecin became the scene of events which started the nearly ten-year gradual breakdown of communist rule in Poland. Szczecin was one of the main strike centers in which the historic Accords were signed on 30 August 1980, thus paving the way to the establishment of the Independent Self-Governing Trade Union "Solidarity" and the huge, libertarian, democratic social movement gathered around it.
