The Institute President Karol Nawrocki said,

It was in 1939 that Poland lost its sovereignty, and not just for six years, but for the next five decades: first, it was taken by German Nazis and the Soviets, and then, in 1945, we lost it again in the Soviet invasion. We became a colony of the USSR, a country that remained enslaved for another forty years, until late 1980s.

And added,

From the loss of freedom in 1939, people who tried to regain it took place in nonstop relay race towards remembrance and independence, an effort that you also participated in.

Additionally, Karol Nawrocki stressed the role of the Lublin region in this independence effort,

In July 1980 it was here in Lublin that the "strike for dignity" took place, introducing August 1980. You were involved in that August, and "Solidarity" was also born here, in Lublin. 13 December 1981: many of you are interned or serve long sentences, while others continue their tireless work in the anti-communist underground. Finally, 1989, which, as evidenced by this meeting, was indeed a breakthrough, but the political transformation took too long. Some of the people who received the Crossed on behalf of their relatives, told me today, "I wish my dad had lived long enough."

The Cross of Freedom and Solidarity is awarded by the President of the Republic of Poland to members of the 1956-1989 anti-communist opposition in recognition of their activities for the independence and sovereignty of Poland, and fight for human rights in the People's Republic of Poland. The decoration design is based on pre-war independence crosses and medals.
