Concert for Ukrainian citizens affected by armed aggression of the Russian Federation – 28 March 2022

On 28 March 2022, a charity concert by Jozsek Broda, organized by the Institute of National Remembrance as a gesture of solidarity with the refugees took place in the "Mars" building at 7 Wołoska Street.

The musical event held by the IPN is one of the forms of support for Ukrainian citizens. The artistic program was addressed to a group of several hundred refugees, including children and youth, who are currently residing in a building located in the immediate vicinity of the IPN headquarters.

Since the first day of the war, which was triggered by the armed aggression of the Russian Federation, a number of specific organizational activities have been undertaken at the IPN to help the war-affected inhabitants of Ukraine. These include the purchase of equipment and basic supplies, transportation of refugees, voluntary in-kind and cash collections and educational activities.
