Opis

Zbigniew Karpus, Maciej Korcuć, Waldemar Rezmer, Prisoners of War 1920, Cracow-Warsaw 2025, 336 p., ISBN 978-83-8376-719-2 (pdf)

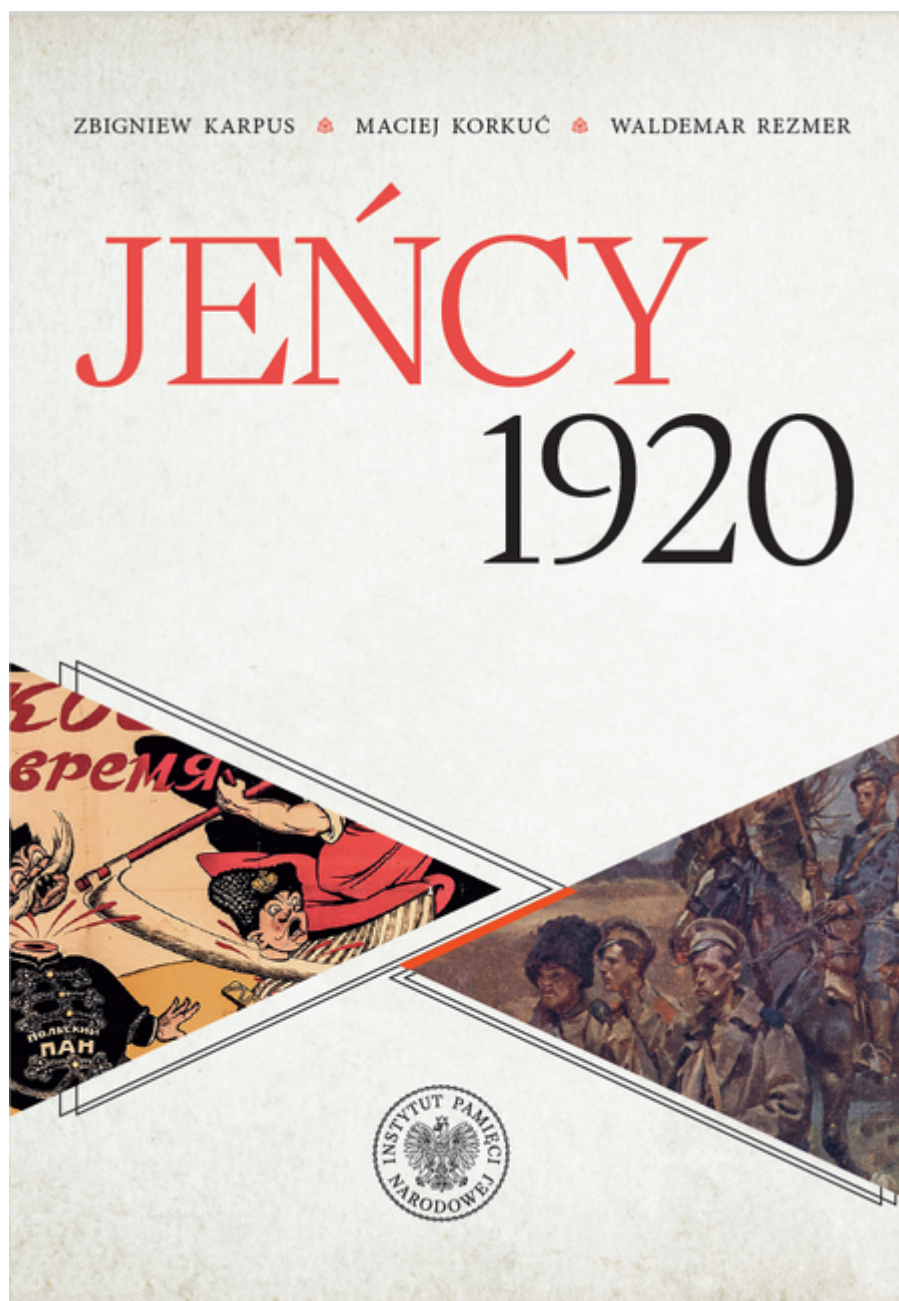

The publication concerns the history of prisoners-of-war taken by both sides during the Polish-Soviet war of 1919-1920. The matter of Bolshevik soldiers held in Polish POW camps was intended by the Gorbachev administration to become the historical counterweight to the massacre of Polish officers and citizens in Katyn and other sites in 1941. In addition to the description of the relevant events, the brochure explains why the prisoner-of-war question was so important to Russian historical propaganda.
